Applicant encloses pictures of a toilet tissue roller on sale one year prior to the filing date of the present application. As shown by the pictures, the tissue roller is formed by two curvilinear roller halves.

The tissue roller has therein scented beads. A compression spring biases the roller halves away from each other.

The disclosed roller does not have a layer of scented oil. The disclosed roller does not have the packaging claimed by Applicant. In addition, as can be seen by the photograph, there are differences in the venting between the disclosed roller and Applicant's claimed roller.

Applicant on the IDS form discloses a summary of this disclosure.

If the Examiner requires any further information, such as a sample of the product, the Examiner is respectfully requested to contact the undersigned attorney who will provide it.

Respectfully submitted,

James B. Conte, Registration No. 54,661
